A delicious lunch, consisting of turkey, cranberries, hot rolls and coffee was daintily served on card tables. The guests were Misses Elizabeth Steele, Rachel Wiggins, Allene Power, Martha Ferguson, Katherine Davis, Mrs. Carl Wilmoth, Mrs. Ray Taylor and Mrs. William Ardery.

—In honor of the seventy-seventh birthday of Miss Kate Edgar the ladies of the Presbyterian church tendered a reception Saturday afternoon. The hours were from two until four o'clock and the affair was planned without the knowledge of Miss Edgar.

The reception was held in the lecture room of the church which was attractive in its decorations of growing plants, southern smilax and bright flowers being the work of Mrs. Robert Neely and Mrs. E. M. Dickson. Upon entering the guests were asked to register in a dainty guest book which was the handiwork of Mrs. Evelyn P. Buck.

The white satin covers were decorated with hard painted violets and on the pages were lovely sprays of spring flowers and a verse of poetry. About one hundred and twenty guests registered. The table where the book was kept was presided over by Miss Corinne Collins and was decorated with smilax and jonquils.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Amos Turney, Miss Edgar, Mrs. Belle Alexander, Mrs. B. M. Shive and Miss Kate Lark, of Lexington, Mrs. E. F. Spears, Mrs. E. H. Rutherford, Mrs. David Dodge and Mrs. Mary Webb, were invited to be in the line but were prevented by illness.

Miss Edgar has been a resident of Paris for forty-four years, and during all that time has been a faithful and active member in the church, the Sunday school and the missionary society, she is a gentle woman of most charming personality, highly cultured and possessed of all the graces of mind and heart that contribute to a well rounded Christian character.

Miss Edgar has been closely allied with the educational interests of Paris, having conducted a large school for girls, in connection with her sister, Mrs. Randolph, who afterwards went as a missionary to China. She was also County Superintendent of Public Instruction for a term of years and thoroughly instructed in all lines of progressive educational work. The ladies of the church honored themselves in honoring Miss Edgar with this beautiful entertainment.

Dainty refreshments of pink, white and green brick cream and individual cakes were served by young ladies and each guest was given a souvenir, a tiny green silk flag, having the words "Erin Go Bragh" for St. Patrick's Day. The coffee table, beautiful with its appointments of silver, china, candles and pink carnations, was presided over by Misses Annie Hibler, Janie Marsh and Mattie Neal. An Italian orchestra discoursed sweet music.

Among the ladies who assisted in entertaining were Miss Edgar's niece, Mrs. J. T. Vansant, Miss Lucy Colville, Mrs. Charles Butler, Mrs. E. M. Dickson, Mrs. Duane Bell, Mrs. Ford Breck and Mrs. M. H. Dailey.
